

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. When and where is the session taking place?

The Addressing the Information Asymmetry: Workshop on financing women-led enterprises session will happen on 22 July at the Jio World Convention Centre, Mumbai, as part of Parivartan – Annual GIFS summit 2026.

2. Is the summit in-person or virtual?

The summit is completely in-person. There will not be a virtual participation option.

3. Is there any registration fee?

No. Registration for the summit and the session is completely free of charge.

4. Do I need to register in advance?

Yes. All attendees must complete the registration process in advance to secure their spot.

5. Will travel or accommodation be provided?

No. Participants are responsible for arranging and covering their own travel, accommodation, and other logistics.

6. Will I receive any logistical support for attending the summit?

No. The team will not be providing travel, accommodation, or local transportation support.

7. Who can attend this session?

The session is open to women entrepreneurs, aspiring founders, business leaders, professionals in this space, and others with an interest in gender-responsive finance.

8. Why should I attend this session?

This is a workshop led session for a focused group of early-stage women borrowers who are yet to avail formal bank credit. The session can help you understand how commercial debt is evaluated, prepare documentation correctly the first time, and translate informal business activity into the financial language lenders expect. It culminates in a credit simulation lab, a real-life style conversation with bankers, to build confidence and readiness to position for debt finance.

9. What time should I arrive?

Please arrive at least 30–45 minutes before the event begins to allow time for registration. However, this session is part of a larger summit: Parivartan – Annual GIFS summit 2026, on 21st and 22nd July. Register for the summit here:
